DECISION

Dispute Codes OPC

Introduction

This hearing was convened as a result of the Landlord's Application for Dispute Resolution. The participatory hearing was held on May 28, 2021. The Landlord applied for the following relief, pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act (the "Act"):

- an order of possession based on a One Month Notice to End Tenancy for Cause (the Notice)

The Landlord attended the hearing. However, the Tenant did not attend the hearing. The Landlord provided registered mail tracking information showing she mailed (to the rental unit) the Notice of Hearing and evidence to the Tenant on March 4, 2021. Pursuant to section 89 and 90 of the Act, the Tenant is deemed served with this package 5 days after it was mailed.

The Landlord was given a full opportunity to be heard, to present evidence and to make submissions. I have reviewed all oral and written evidence before me that met the requirements of the Rules of Procedure. However, only the evidence relevant to the issues and findings in this matter are described in this Decision.

Issue to be Decided

- Is the landlord entitled to an order of possession under the Act?

Background and Evidence

The Landlord stated that she served the Tenant with the Notice by mailing it to the Tenant on December 17, 2020. The Landlord provided a copy of the Notice, and highlighted that the Tenant, and the occupants she has permitted on the property still occupy the house. The Landlord explained that there are several issues with the tenancy, including an unreasonable number of occupants staying at the property, and the Tenant's failure to comply with BC Housing rental requirements (rent calculation paperwork etc).

The Landlord stated that the Tenant has now stopped paying rent.

Analysis

Based on the testimony and documentary evidence, and on a balance of probabilities, I find:

After reviewing the Notice, I am satisfied that it complies with section 52 of the Act [form and content of notice to end tenancy]. Section 47 of the Act permits a landlord to end a tenancy for cause. A tenant who receives a notice to end tenancy for cause has 10 days after receipt to dispute it by making an application for dispute resolution. Failure to dispute the notice to end tenancy for cause in this period results in the conclusive presumption that the tenant has accepted the end of the tenancy, under section 47(5) of the Act.

In this case, the Landlord issued the Notice for several reasons. Based on the Landlord's testimony and the Proof of Service document submitted, I am satisfied that the Landlord served the Tenant with the Notice, by mail. I find the Tenant is deemed to have received this Notice 5 days after it was mailed, December 22, 2020.

The Tenant had 10 days, until January 2, 2021, to dispute the notice, but did not do so. Accordingly, pursuant to section 47(5) of the Act, I find the tenant is conclusively presumed to have accepted the end of the tenancy on the effective date of the Notice. I accept the undisputed evidence that the Tenant has an unreasonable number of occupants, and that they still continue to occupy the rental property.

I note the Tenant has not paid any rent for a couple of months. Therefore, the Landlord is entitled to an order of possession, which will be effective two days after service on the tenant.

Conclusion

The landlord is granted an order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant. This order must be served on the tenant. If the tenant fails to comply with this order the landlord may file the order with the Supreme Court of British Columbia and be enforced as an order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
