DECISION

Dispute Codes MNSDS-DR, FFT

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 38.1 of the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the tenants for a Monetary Order for the return of the security deposit (the deposit).

The tenants submitted a signed Proof of Service Tenant's Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that on April 27, 2021, the tenants sent the landlord the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding by e-mail. The tenants provided a copy of the outgoing e-mail containing attachments of the supporting documents to confirm this service.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Are the tenants entitled to monetary compensation for the return of a security deposit pursuant to sections 38 and 67 of the Act?

Are the tenants entitled to recover the filing fee for this application pursuant to section 72 of the Act?

Analysis

In this type of matter, the tenants must prove they served the landlord with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding with all the required inclusions as indicated on the Notice as per section 89 of the Act.

Section 89 of the Act provides that a Notice of Direct Request Proceeding may be served "by any other means of service provided for in the regulations."

Section 43(2) of the Residential Tenancy Regulation provides that documents "may be given to a person by emailing a copy to an email address provided as an address for service by the person."

I find that the tenants have served the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding to the landlord by e-mail. I note the tenants submitted a copy of two e-mails exchanged between the landlord and the tenants showing that e-mail was used as a method of communication. However, I find there is no evidence demonstrating that the landlord indicated e-mail could also be used as a method to serve official documents.

I find the tenants have not demonstrated that the landlord's e-mail address was provided for service of documents, as required by section 43(2) of the Residential Tenancy Regulation.

I find I am not able to confirm service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding to the landlord in accordance with section 89 of the Act and section 43(2) of the Regulation.

For this reason, the tenants' application for a Monetary Order for the return of the security deposit is dismissed with leave to reapply.

As the tenants were not successful in this application, I find the tenants are not entitled to recover the filing fee paid for this application.

Conclusion

I dismiss the tenants' application for a Monetary Order for the return of the security deposit with leave to reapply.

I dismiss the tenants' application to recover the filing fee paid for this application without leave to reapply.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
