DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR-DR, OPRM-DR, FFL

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent and a Monetary Order.

The landlord submitted two signed Proof of Service Notice of Direct Request Proceeding forms which declare that on April 28, 2021, the landlord sent each of the tenants the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding by registered mail to the rental unit.

The Proof of Service Notice of Direct Request Proceeding forms instruct the landlord to attach a completed Canada Post Registered Mail Receipt to confirm service.

The landlord provided a copy of the Canada Post Registered Mail Receipt containing the tracking number to confirm the mailing to Tenant D.T. Based on the written submissions of the landlord and in accordance with sections 89 and 90 of the Act, I find that Tenant D.T. is deemed to have been served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents on May 3, 2021, the fifth day after their registered mailing.

I note that the landlord typed a tracking number on the Proof of Service form for Tenant O.J.; however, I find the landlord has not submitted a copy of the Canada Post Registered Mail Receipt itself. In its place, I find the landlord has submitted a second copy of the Canada Post receipt for Tenant D.T.

As the landlord has not submitted the Direct Request documents required for Tenant O.J., I will only proceed with the portion of the landlord's application naming Tenant D.T. as a respondent.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Is the landlord entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent pursuant to section 67 of the Act?

Is the landlord entitled to recover the filing fee for this application pursuant to section 72 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted the following relevant evidentiary material:

- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the landlord and the tenants, indicating a monthly rent of $1,300.00, due on the first day of each month for a tenancy commencing on September 1, 2020
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the 10 Day Notice) dated April 5, 2021, for $1,300.00 in unpaid rent. The 10 Day Notice provides that the tenants had five days from the date of service to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end on the stated effective vacancy date of April 20, 2021
- A copy of a Proof of Service Notice to End Tenancy form which indicates that the 10 Day Notice was sent to the tenants by registered mail at 3:48 pm on April 5, 2021
- A copy of a Canada Post Registered Mail Receipt containing the tracking number to confirm the 10 Day Notice was sent to the tenants on April 5, 2021
- A Direct Request Worksheet showing the rent owing and paid during the relevant portion of this tenancy

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and I find that Tenant D.T. was obligated to pay the monthly rent in the amount of $1,300.00, as per the tenancy agreement.

In accordance with sections 88 and 90 of the Act, I find that Tenant D.T. was deemed served with the 10 Day Notice on April 10, 2021, five days after its registered mailing.

I accept the evidence before me that Tenant D.T. has failed to pay the rent owed in full within the five days granted under section 46(4) of the Act and did not dispute the 10 Day Notice within that five-day period.

Based on the foregoing, I find that Tenant D.T. is conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the 10 Day Notice, April 20, 2021.

Therefore, I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession and a monetary award in the amount of $1,300.00, the amount claimed by the landlord for unpaid rent owing for April 2021, as of the date of this application, April 16, 2021.

As the landlord partially was successful in this application, I find that the landlord is entitled to recover the $100.00 filing fee paid for this application.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the landlord effective two days after service of this Order on Tenant D.T. Should Tenant D.T. and any other occupant fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Pursuant to sections 67 and 72 of the Act, I grant the landlord a Monetary Order in the amount of $1,400.00 for rent owed for April 2021 and for the recovery of the filing fee for this application. The landlord is provided with this Order in the above terms and Tenant D.T. must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should Tenant D.T. fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

I dismiss the portion of the landlord's application for a Monetary Order naming Tenant O.J. as a respondent without leave to reapply.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
