DECISION

Dispute Codes OPU-DR, MNU-DR, FFL

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the Landlord to obtain an order of possession based on unpaid rent and utilities, to obtain monetary compensation for unpaid rent and utilities, and to recover the filing fee paid for the application.

The Landlord submitted two copies of signed Proof of Service Notice of Direct Request Proceeding forms which declare that on September 10, 2021, the Landlord emailed each Tenant the Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding - Direct Request. The Landlord provided copies of sent emails to confirm they emailed the Tenants.

Issues to be Decided

Is the Landlord entitled to an order of possession for unpaid rent and utilities pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Is the Landlord entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent and utilities pursuant to section 67 of the Act?

Is the Landlord entitled to recover the filing fee for this application pursuant to section 72 of the Act?

Analysis

In this type of matter, the Landlord must prove they served the Tenants with the Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding – Direct Request and all documents in support of the application in accordance with section 89 of the Act.

Section 89 of the Act provides that a Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding - Direct Request may be served “by any other means of service provided for in the regulations.”

Section 43(2) of the Residential Tenancy Regulation provides that documents “*may be given to a person by emailing a copy to an email address provided as an address for service by the person.”

I find that the Landlord has sent the Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding - Direct Request to the Tenants by e-mail. However, I find there is no evidence to demonstrate that the Tenants indicated documents could be served by e-mail.

I find the Landlord has not demonstrated that the Tenants’ e-mail addresses were provided for service of documents, as required by section 43(2) of the Residential Tenancy Regulation.

I find I am not able to confirm service of the Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding - Direct Request to the Tenants and for this reason, the Landlord's application for an order of possession and a monetary order for unpaid rent and utilities is dismissed with leave to reapply.

As the Landlord was not successful in this application, I find the Landlord is not entitled to recover the filing fee paid for this application.

Conclusion

I dismiss the Landlord's application for an order of possession and a monetary order for unpaid rent and utilities with leave to reapply.

I dismiss the Landlord's application to recover the filing fee paid for this application without leave to reapply.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
