DECISION

Dispute Codes CNC, FFT

Introduction

This hearing was convened as a result of the Tenant's Application for Dispute Resolution under the Residential Tenancy Act ("Act"). The Tenant applied for:

- an order cancelling a One Month Notice for Cause dated November 13, 2021 ("1 Month Notice") pursuant to section 47; and
- authorization to recover the Tenant's filing fee for this application from the Landlord pursuant to section 72.

The two Landlords ("CC" and "BC"), the Landlords' property manager ("TP") and the Tenant attended the hearing. They were given a full opportunity to be heard, to present sworn testimony, to make submissions and to call witnesses.

The Tenant stated he served the Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding ("NDRP") on the Landlords by registered mail on November 22, 2021. CC acknowledged the Landlords received the NDRP. I find the Landlords were served with the NDRP in accordance with section 89 of the Act.

Preliminary Matter – Amendment to Rental Address

CC testified the street address stated in the Tenant's application is correct but it did not correctly identify the rental unit itself. The Landlord referred to the 1 Month Notice which correctly refers to the rental unit. The Landlord requested an amendment to the Tenant's application to correctly identify the rental unit.

Rule 4.2 of the Residential Tenancy Branch Rules of Procedure states ("RoP"):

4.2 Amending an application at the hearing

In circumstances that can reasonably be anticipated, such as when the amount of rent owing has increased since the time the Application for Dispute Resolution was made, the application may be amended at the hearing.

If an amendment to an application is sought at a hearing, an Amendment to an Application for Dispute Resolution need not be submitted or served.

As CC's request could reasonably be anticipated by the Tenant, I amended the Tenant's application to correct the name of the rental unit.

Settlement Agreement

Pursuant to section 63 of the Act, an arbitrator may assist the parties to settle their dispute and if the parties settle their dispute during the dispute resolution proceedings, the settlement may be recorded in the form of a decision or an order. During the hearing the parties discussed the issues between them, engaged in a conversation, turned their minds to compromise and achieved a resolution of their dispute.

The parties agreed to the following final and binding settlement of all issues currently under dispute:

1. The Landlords agree to cancel the 2 Month Notice;
2. The Tenant agrees to withdraw his application;
3. The Tenant must vacate the rental unit not later than 1:00 pm on May 15, 2022;
4. The Landlords agree to waive all outstanding rental arrears; and
5. The Landlords agree to waive all rent through to the end of the tenancy on May 15, 2022.

These particulars comprise the full and final settlement of all aspects of the Tenant's dispute against the Landlords. The parties gave verbal affirmation at the hearing that they understood and agreed to the above terms as legal, final, and binding, which settle all aspects of claims made in the Tenant's application.

Conclusion

As the parties have reached a full and final settlement of all the claims set out in the Tenant's application, I make no factual findings about the merits of their applications.

I hereby order that the 1 Month Notice to End Tenancy to be cancelled and of no force or effect.

To give effect to the settlement reached between the parties, and as discussed at the hearing, I grant the Landlords an Order of Possession effective at 1:00 pm on May 15, 2022. The Landlords are provided with this Order in the above terms and the Tenant must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should the Tenant fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed in the Supreme Court of British Columbia and enforced as an Order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
