DECISION

Dispute Codes ET

The Landlord applies for an early termination to the tenancy pursuant to s. 56 of the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”).

R.C. and M.L. appeared on behalf of the Landlord. S.P. appeared as Tenant and was joined by her support worker, S.C..

The parties affirmed to tell the truth during the hearing. I advised of Rule 6.11 of the Rules of Procedure, in which the participants are prohibited from recording the hearing. The parties confirmed that they were not recording the hearing.

Parties’ Settlement

Pursuant to section 63 of the Act, I may assist the parties to settle their dispute and if the parties settle their dispute during the dispute resolution proceedings, the settlement may be recorded in the form of a decision or an order. During the hearing, the parties discussed the issues between them, turned their minds to compromise and achieved a resolution of their dispute.

The parties were advised that they were under no obligation to enter into a settlement agreement. Both parties agreed to the following settlement on all issues in dispute in this application:

1. The tenancy will end by way of mutual agreement on April 15, 2022.

I confirmed each detail of the settlement with the Landlord and the Tenant.

Pursuant to the parties' settlement, I grant the Landlord an order for possession. The Tenant shall provide vacant possession of the rental unit to the Landlord by no later than 1:00 PM on April 15, 2022.

It is the Landlord's obligation to serve the order for possession on the Tenant. If the Tenant does not comply with the order for possession, it may be filed by the Landlord with the Supreme Court of British Columbia and enforced as an order of that Court.

I make no findings of fact or law with respect to this dispute. Nothing in this settlement agreement is to be construed as a limit on either parties' entitlement to compensation or other relief to which they may be entitled to under the Act.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
