DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR-DR, FFL

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlords to obtain an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent, and to recover the filing fee paid for the application.

The landlords provided a statement which indicates that on April 24, 2022, the landlords emailed the tenant the Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding - Direct Request. The landlord provided a copy of the email sent to the tenant with the Direct Request Proceeding documents attached.

Issues to be Decided

Are the landlords entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Are the landlords entitled to recover the filing fee for this application pursuant to section 72 of the Act?

Analysis

In this type of matter, the landlords must prove they served the tenant with the Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding – Direct Request and all documents in support of the application in accordance with section 89 of the Act.

Section 89 of the Act provides that a Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding - Direct Request may be served “by any other means of service provided for in the regulations.”

Section 43(2) of the Residential Tenancy Regulation provides that documents “may be given to a person by emailing a copy to an email address provided as an address for service by the person.”

I find that the landlords have sent the Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding - Direct Request to the tenant by e-mail. However, I find there is no evidence to demonstrate that the tenant indicated documents could be served by e-mail.

I find the landlords have not demonstrated that the tenant's e-mail address was provided for service of documents, as required by section 43(2) of the Residential Tenancy Regulation.

I find I am not able to confirm service of the Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding - Direct Request to the tenant and for this reason, the landlords' application for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent is dismissed with leave to reapply.

As the landlords were not successful in this application, I find the landlords are not entitled to recover the filing fee paid for this application.

Conclusion

I dismiss the landlords' application for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent with leave to reapply.

I dismiss the landlords' application to recover the filing fee paid for this application without leave to reapply.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
