DECISION

Dispute Codes      MNSDS-DR, FFT

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 38.1 of the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the tenant to obtain monetary compensation for the return of double the security deposit (the deposit) and to recover the filing fee paid for the application.

This decision is written based on the Application for Dispute Resolution, evidence, and submissions provided by the tenant on May 9, 2022.

The tenant submitted one signed Proof of Service Tenant's Notice of Direct Request Proceeding form which declare that on May 21, 2022, the tenant sent the landlords the Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding - Direct Request by registered mail. The tenant provided a copy of two Canada Post Customer Receipts and two tracking reports containing the tracking number to confirm these mailings were successfully delivered on June 2, 2022.

Based on the written submissions of the tenant and in accordance with section 89 of the Act, I find that the Direct Request Proceeding documents were served on May 21, 2022 and were received by the landlords on June 2, 2022.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the tenant entitled to monetary compensation for the return of a security deposit pursuant to sections 38 and 67 of the Act?

Is the tenant entitled to recover the filing fee for this application pursuant to section 72 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

I have reviewed all written submissions and evidence before me; however, only the evidence and submissions relevant to the issues and findings in this matter are described in this decision.

The tenant submitted the following relevant evidentiary material:

- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the landlords and the tenant, indicating a monthly rent of $1,600.00 and a security deposit of $800.00, for a tenancy commencing on October 1, 2021
- A copy of a letter from the tenant to the landlords dated January 12, 2022, providing the forwarding address and requesting the return of the deposit
- A copy of a Proof of Service Tenant Forwarding Address for the Return of Security and/or Pet Damage Deposit form which indicates that the forwarding address was served to the landlords in person at 4:30 pm on February 27, 2022
- A copy of an e-mail from the landlords to the tenant dated March 12, 2022, acknowledging that the forwarding address letter was hand-delivered on February 27, 2022
- A copy of a Tenant's Direct Request Worksheet showing the amount of the deposit paid by the tenant and indicating the tenancy ended on November 30, 2021

Analysis

Section 38(1) of the Act states that the landlord has fifteen days from the end of tenancy and the date they received the forwarding address to either return the deposit(s) in full or make an application for dispute resolution claiming against the deposit(s).

Section 38(6) of the Act states that if the landlord does not return the deposit(s) or file a claim against them within the fifteen days, the landlord must pay the tenant double the amount of the deposit(s).

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and I find that the tenant paid a security deposit in the amount of $800.00, as per the tenancy agreement.

I accept the following declarations made by the tenant on the Tenant's Direct Request Worksheet:

- The tenant has not provided consent for the landlords to keep all or part of the deposit
- There are no outstanding Monetary Orders against the tenant for this tenancy
- The tenant has not extinguished their right to the deposit in accordance with sections 24(1) and 36(1) of the Act

I accept the tenant's statement on the Tenant's Direct Request Worksheet that the tenancy ended on November 30, 2021.

In accordance with landlords' acknowledgement e-mail and section 88 of the Act, I find that the forwarding address was duly served to the landlords on February 27, 2022.

I accept the evidence before me that the landlords have failed to return the deposit to the tenant and has not filed an Application for Dispute Resolution requesting to retain the deposit by March 14, 2022, within the fifteen days granted under section 38(1) of the Act.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the landlords must pay the tenant double the amount of the security deposit in accordance sections 38(6) of the Act.

Therefore, I find that the tenant is entitled to a monetary award in the amount of $1,600.00, the amount claimed by the tenant for double the security deposit.

As the tenant was successful in this application, I find that the tenant is entitled to recover the $100.00 filing fee paid for this application.

Conclusion

Pursuant to sections 67 and 72 of the Act, I grant the tenant a Monetary Order in the amount of $1,700.00 for the return of double the security deposit and for the recovery of the filing fee for this application. The tenant is provided with this Order in the above terms and the landlord(s) must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should the landlord(s) fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
