DECISION

Dispute Codes CNL, OLC, FF

Introduction, Preliminary and Procedural Matters-

This hearing dealt with the tenant's application for dispute resolution seeking remedy under the Residential Tenancy Act (Act) for:

- an order cancelling the Two Month Notice to End Tenancy for Landlord's Use of Property (Notice) issued by the landlord;
- an order requiring the landlord to comply with the Act, regulations, or tenancy agreement; and
- to recover the cost of the filing fee.

The tenant and the agent for one of the landlords attended the hearing and were affirmed.

In discussion at the beginning of the hearing, the tenant said they vacated the rental unit on May 15, 2022, in response to the 2 Month Notice.

Analysis and Conclusion

As I informed the tenant, I cannot proceed on their application for dispute resolution, as the tenancy ended on the date they vacated the rental unit on May 15, 2022, as provided in section 44(1)(d) of the Act. As a result, I find the tenant's request for an order cancelling the 2 Month Notice is now moot.

As to the tenant's request to require the landlord to comply with the Act, the tenant's application was not specific as to what section of the Act they were referring. Rather, the application indicated the 2 Month Notice was not valid.

I find that this request is now moot, as the tenancy has ended. If the tenant believed they should not be required to vacate the rental unit, they ought to have waited for the hearing so that I could decide whether the 2 Month Notice was valid. When the tenant vacated the rental unit, their application became moot, as I cannot now decide whether or not the tenancy shall continue.

Given the above, I dismiss the tenant's application, without leave to reapply.

As I did not consider the merits of the tenant's application or the 2 Month Notice, I dismiss the tenant's request for recovery of the filing fee, without leave to reapply.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act. Pursuant to section 77(3) of the Act, a decision or an order is final and binding, except as otherwise provided in the Act.
