A matter regarding 1351132 BC LTD
and [tenant name suppressed to protect privacy]

DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR-DR, MNR-DR, FFL

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord to obtain an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent, to obtain monetary compensation for unpaid rent, and to recover the filing fee paid for the application.

The landlord indicates that on July 14, 2022 they e-mailed the tenant the Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding - Direct Request. The landlord provided a copy of three photographs of the email sent to the tenant, and a screenshot of a series of three text messages exchanged between the landlord and the tenant to confirm this service.

Issues to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Is the landlord entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent pursuant to section 67 of the Act?

Is the landlord entitled to recover the filing fee for this application pursuant to section 72 of the Act?

Analysis

In this type of matter, the landlord must prove they served the tenant with the Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding – Direct Request and all documents in support of the application in accordance with section 89 of the Act.

Section 89 of the Act provides that a Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding - Direct Request may be served “by any other means of service provided for in the regulations.”

Section 43(2) of the Residential Tenancy Regulation provides that documents “*may be given to a person by emailing a copy to an email address provided as an address for service by the person.”

I note that the landlord submitted a screenshot of a series of three text messages exchanged between the landlord and tenant where the tenant indicates their e-mail address, however I find that the tenant did not specifically provide their e-mail address for service of documents as prescribed in section 43(2) of the Residential Tenancy Regulation.

I find the landlord has not demonstrated that the tenant's e-mail address was provided for service of documents, as required by section 43(2) of the Residential Tenancy Regulation.

I find I am not able to confirm service of the Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding - Direct Request to the tenant and for this reason, the landlord's application for an Order of Possession and a Monetary Order for unpaid rent is dismissed with leave to reapply.

As the landlord was not successful in this application, I find the landlord is not entitled to recover the filing fee paid for this application.

Conclusion

I dismiss the landlord's application for an Order of Possession and a Monetary Order for unpaid rent with leave to reapply.

I dismiss the landlord's application to recover the filing fee paid for this application without leave to reapply.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
