DECISION

Dispute Codes CNC, FFT

Introduction

This hearing dealt with the tenant's application pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act) for:

- cancellation of the One Month Notice to End Tenancy for Cause, pursuant to section 47; and
- authorization to recover the filing fee for this application from the landlord, pursuant to section 72.

The landlord's agent (the "agent"), the tenant, the tenant's daughter and the tenant's legal advocate attended the hearing and were each given a full opportunity to be heard, to present affirmed testimony, to make submissions, and to call witnesses.

Both parties were advised that Rule 6.11 of the Residential Tenancy Branch Rules of Procedure prohibits the recording of dispute resolution hearings. Both parties testified that they are not recording this dispute resolution hearing.

Per section 95(3) of the Act, the parties may be fined up to $5,000.00 if they record this hearing: "A person who contravenes or fails to comply with a decision or an order made by the director commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of not more than $5 000."

Both parties confirmed their email addresses for service of this decision and order.

Preliminary Issue- Amendment

Both parties agree that an employee of the landlord was named as the landlord in this application for dispute resolution. Both parties consented to amend the landlord named in this application to the landlord named in the tenancy agreement. Pursuant to section 64 of the Act, I so amend.

Analysis

Pursuant to section 63 of the Act, the Arbitrator may assist the parties to settle their dispute and if the parties settle their dispute during the dispute resolution proceedings, the settlement may be recorded in the form of a decision or an order. During the hearing the parties discussed the issues between them, engaged in a conversation, turned their minds to compromise and achieved a resolution of their dispute.

Both parties agreed to the following final and binding settlement of all issues currently under dispute:

1. The landlord agrees to cancel the One Month Notice to End Tenancy for Cause dated May 12, 2022.
2. The tenant agrees to vacate the subject rental property by 1:00 p.m. on April 30, 2023.
3. The tenant agrees not to communicate with any landlord staff or contractors other than landlord agent L.W. while residing in the subject rental property.
4. If the tenant breaches term 3 above, the tenant agrees to vacate the subject rental property 2 days after the breach of term 3.

These particulars comprise the full and final settlement of all aspects of this dispute for both parties. Both parties gave verbal affirmation at the hearing that they understood and agreed to the above terms as legal, final and binding, which settle all aspects of this dispute.

Conclusion

To give effect to the settlement reached between the parties and as discussed with them during the hearing, I issue the attached Order of Possession effective at 1:00 p.m. on April 30, 2023. The Order of Possession should be served on the tenant. Should the tenant fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
