DECISION

Dispute Codes CNC

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application filed by the tenant pursuant the Residential Tenancy Act (the "Act") for An order to cancel a 1 Month Notice to End Tenancy for Cause, pursuant to sections 47 and 55.

Both the tenant and the landlord attended the hearing. The landlord was represented by property manager, SM (the "landlord"). The landlord confirmed receipt of the tenant's Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceedings and had no issues with timely service of documents.

The parties were informed at the start of the hearing that recording of the dispute resolution is prohibited under the Rule 6.11 of the Residential Tenancy Branch Rules of Procedure ("Rules") and that if any recording was made without my authorization, the offending party would be referred to the RTB Compliance Enforcement Unit for the purpose of an investigation and potential fine under the Act.

Each party was administered an oath to tell the truth and they both confirmed that they were not recording the hearing.

Settlement Reached

Pursuant to section 63 of the Act, the Arbitrator may assist the parties to settle their dispute and if the parties settle their dispute during the dispute resolution proceedings, the settlement may be recorded in the form of a decision or an order. I advised the parties on several occasions that there is no obligation to resolve the dispute through settlement and that if either party did not wish to resolve this matter through settlement, I was prepared to make a decision based on the evidence before me. During the hearing the parties discussed the issues between them, turned their minds to compromise and achieved the following resolution of their dispute.

1. The parties mutually agree to end this tenancy. This tenancy will end at 1:00 p.m. on November 30, 2022, by which time the tenant and any other occupant will have vacated the rental unit.
2. The tenant's daughter and the tenant's daughter's boyfriend will not be inside or outside the property except the tenant's daughter may assist the tenant in moving out the week prior to her moving date.
3. The rights and obligations of the parties continue until the tenancy ends.

Both parties testified that they understood and agreed that the above terms are legal, final, binding and enforceable, which settle all aspects of this dispute. As the parties resolved matters by agreement, I make no findings of fact or law with respect to the application before me.

Conclusion

To give effect to the settlement reached between the parties and as discussed at the hearing, I issue an Order of Possession to the landlord. The landlord is to serve this Order of Possession upon the tenant immediately and enforce it as early as 1:00 p.m. on November 30, 2022, should the landlord be required to do so.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
