

DECISION

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 38.1 of the Residential Tenancy Act (the "Act"), and dealt with the tenant's Application for Dispute Resolution (Application) for:

- a Monetary Order for the return of all or a portion of their security deposit and pet damage deposit pursuant to sections 38 and 67 of the Act ($1,575.00)
- authorization to recover the filing fee for this application from the landlord pursuant to section 72 of the Act ($100.00)

Service of Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding - Direct Request

The tenant submitted a copy of a Canada Post Customer Receipt containing the tracking number to confirm a package was sent by registered mail on September 28, 2022.

Issue(s) to be decided

Is the tenant entitled to a Monetary Order for the return of all or a portion of their security and pet damage deposit? ($1,575.00)

Is the tenant entitled to recover the filing fee for this application from the landlord? ($100.00)

Analysis

Is the tenant entitled to a Monetary Order for the return of all or a portion of their security and pet damage deposit?

In an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, the onus is on the tenant to ensure that all submitted evidentiary material is in accordance with the prescribed criteria and that such evidentiary material does not lend itself to ambiguity or give rise to issues that may need further clarification beyond the purview of a Direct Request Proceeding. If the tenant cannot establish that all documents meet the standard necessary to proceed via the Direct Request Proceeding, the application may be found to have deficiencies that necessitate a participatory hearing, or, in the alternative, the application may be dismissed.

In this type of matter, the tenant must prove they served the landlord with the Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding - Direct Request and all documents in support of the application as per section 89 of the Act. Policy Guideline #49 on Tenant's Direct Request provides the following requirements:

"Once the package is served, the tenant must complete and submit a Proof of Service Tenant's Notice of Direct Request Proceeding (Form RTB-50) which is provided by the Branch with the Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding"

I note that the tenant submitted a copy of a Canada Post receipt containing a tracking number to confirm a package was sent by registered mail on September 28, 2022. However, I find the tenant has not provided a copy of the Proof of Service Tenant's Notice of Direct Request Proceeding form which is a requirement of the Direct Request process as detailed in Policy Guideline #49.

I find the tenant has not submitted the documents required for a Direct Request and for this reason, the tenant's application for a Monetary Order for the return of the security deposit and the pet damage deposit is dismissed with leave to reapply.

I make no findings on the merits of the matter. Leave to reapply is not an extension of any applicable limitation period.

Is the tenant entitled to recover the filing fee for this application from the landlord?

As the tenant was not successful in this application, the tenant's application for authorization to recover the filing fee for this application is dismissed, without leave to reapply.

Conclusion

The tenant's Application for a Monetary Order for the return of all or a portion of their security deposit and pet damage deposit pursuant to sections 38 and 67 of the Act is dismissed, with leave to reapply.

The tenant's Application for authorization to recover the filing fee for this application from the landlord pursuant to section 72 of the Act is dismissed, without leave to reapply.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
