DECISION

Dispute Codes ET, FFL

Introduction

This hearing dealt with the landlord's application pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act ("Act") for:

- an early end to tenancy and an order of possession, pursuant to section 56; and
- authorization to recover the $100.00 filing fee paid for this application, pursuant to section 72.

The landlord's agent, the tenant, and the tenant's advocate attended the hearing and were each given a full opportunity to be heard, to present affirmed testimony, to make submissions, and to call witnesses. This hearing lasted approximately 17 minutes, from 9:30 a.m. to 9:47 a.m.

All hearing participants confirmed their names and spelling. The landlord's agent and the tenant provided their email addresses for me to send this decision to both parties after the hearing.

The landlord's agent confirmed that he is the property manager with tenant engagement, employed by the landlord company ("landlord") named in this application. He said that the landlord owns the rental unit. He provided the rental unit address. He stated that he had permission to represent the landlord at this hearing.

The tenant confirmed that her advocate had permission to represent her at this hearing. She identified her advocate as the primary speaker for the tenant at this hearing.

Rule 6.11 of the Residential Tenancy Branch ("RTB") Rules of Procedure ("Rules") does not permit recordings of any RTB hearings by any participants. At the outset of this hearing, all hearing participants separately affirmed, under oath, that they would not record this hearing.

I explained the hearing and settlement processes, and the potential outcomes and consequences, to both parties. Both parties had an opportunity to ask questions. Neither party made any adjournment or accommodation requests. Both parties confirmed that they were ready to proceed with this hearing, they wanted to voluntarily settle this application, and they did not want me to make a decision.

The tenant's advocate confirmed receipt of the landlord's application for dispute resolution hearing package. The landlord's agent confirmed receipt of the tenant's evidence. In accordance with sections 88 and 89 of the Act, I find that the tenant was duly served with the landlord's application and the landlord was duly served with the tenant's evidence.

Settlement Terms

Pursuant to section 63 of the Act, the Arbitrator may assist the parties to settle their dispute and if the parties settle their dispute during the dispute resolution proceedings, the settlement may be recorded in the form of a decision and orders. During the hearing, the parties discussed the issues between them, turned their minds to compromise and achieved a resolution of their dispute.

Both parties agreed to the following final and binding settlement of all issues currently under dispute at this time:

1. Both parties agreed that this tenancy will end by 2:00 p.m. on February 28, 2023, by which time the tenant and any other occupants will have vacated the rental unit;
2. The landlord agreed to bear the cost of the $100.00 filing fee paid for this application;
3. The landlord agreed that this settlement agreement constitutes a final and binding resolution of the landlord's application.

These particulars comprise the full and final settlement of all aspects of this dispute for both parties. Both parties affirmed at the hearing, that they understood and agreed to the above terms, free of any duress or coercion. Both parties affirmed at the hearing, that they understood and agreed that the above terms are legal, final, binding, and enforceable, which settle all aspects of this dispute.

The terms and consequences of the above settlement were reviewed in detail, with both parties during this 17-minute hearing. Both parties had opportunities to think about, ask questions, negotiate, and discuss the settlement terms with each other in detail. The tenant was given ample and additional time during this hearing, to discuss the above settlement terms with her advocate, who assisted her throughout this hearing.

Conclusion

I order both parties to comply with all of the above settlement terms.

To give effect to the settlement reached between the parties and as discussed with them during the hearing, I issue the attached Order of Possession to be used by the landlord only if the tenant and any other occupants fail to vacate the rental premises by 2:00 p.m. on February 28, 2023. The tenant must be served with this Order. Should the tenant fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

The landlord must bear the cost of the $100.00 filing fee paid for this application.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
