Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the tenant pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act (“Act”) for orders as follows:

- cancellation of the landlords’ One Month Notice to End Tenancy for Cause (“One Month Notice”) pursuant to section 47

Both parties attended the hearing with the landlord represented by an agents KG and KL, while the tenant TD appeared by himself along with advocate TH. All parties were given a full opportunity to be heard, to present testimony, to make submissions, and to call witnesses.

The hearing was conducted by conference call. The parties were reminded to not record the hearing pursuant to Rule of Procedure 6.11. The parties were affirmed.

The tenant confirmed receipt of the One Month Notice dated January 18, 2023. Pursuant to section 88 of the Act the tenant is found to have been served with this notice in accordance with the Act.

The parties each testified that they received the respective materials and based on their testimonies I find each party duly served in accordance with sections 88 and 89 of the Act.

The tenancy commenced on January 1, 2021. Rent is $470.00 per month due on the first of the month. The landlord holds a security deposit of $600.00 in trust for the tenant. The tenant still occupies the rental unit.

Settlement

Pursuant to section 63 of the Act, an arbitrator may assist the parties to settle their dispute and if the parties settle their dispute during the dispute resolution proceedings, the settlement may be recorded in the form of a decision or an order. During the hearing the parties discussed the issues between them, engaged in a conversation, turned their minds to compromise and achieved a resolution of their dispute.

Both parties agreed to the following final and binding settlement of all issues listed in this application for dispute resolution:

1. The tenant agrees to provide the landlord with vacant possession of the subject rental property on May 31, 2023 at 1:00 P.M.

As the parties have reached a settlement, I make no factual findings about the merits of this application, and I have only addressed the issues brought forward in the application before me.

Conclusion

I order the parties to comply with the terms of the settled agreement described above.

To give effect to the settlement reached between the parties and as discussed with them during the hearing, pursuant to section 63(2) of the Act, I issue an order of possession to the landlord, which is to take effect on May 31, 2023, at 1:00 P.M.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
