DECISION

Dispute Codes MNETC, FFT

Introduction and Preliminary Matters

On October 4, 2022, the Tenant applied for a Dispute Resolution proceeding seeking a Monetary Order for compensation based on a Two Month Notice to End Tenancy for Landlord's Use of Property (the "Notice") pursuant to Section 51 of the Residential Tenancy Act (the "Act"), and seeking to recover the filing fee pursuant to Section 72 of the Act.

The Tenant attended the hearing, with A.R. attending as a translator for the Tenant and with R.R. attending as counsel for the Tenant. Both Landlords attended the hearing as well and noted their correct legal names. As such, the Style of Cause on the first page of this Decision has been amended to reflect this correction.

At the outset of the hearing, I explained to the parties that as the hearing was a teleconference, none of the parties could see each other, so to ensure an efficient, respectful hearing, this would rely on each party taking a turn to have their say. As such, when one party is talking, I asked that the other party not interrupt or respond unless prompted by myself. Furthermore, if a party had an issue with what had been said, they were advised to make a note of it and when it was their turn, they would have an opportunity to address these concerns. The parties were also informed that recording of the hearing was prohibited, and they were reminded to refrain from doing so. As well, all parties in attendance, with the exception of R.R., provided a solemn affirmation.

Service of the Notice of Hearing package and documentary evidence was discussed, and there were no issues concerning service. As such, all parties' evidence will be accepted and considered when rendering this Decision.

All parties agreed that the tenancy started with a different owner on January 1, 2014, and that the tenancy ended when the Tenant gave up vacant possession of the rental unit on July 2, 2023. As well, they agreed that rent was established at an amount of $1,550.00 per month and that it was due on the first day of each month. A security deposit of $650.00 was also paid. A signed copy of the tenancy agreement with the previous owner was submitted as documentary evidence for consideration.

Prior to submissions being made by both parties pertaining to the Tenant's claim for compensation, the parties turned their minds to reaching a full and final settlement agreement. The parties were able to reach an agreement and I have recorded the terms of agreement by way of this Decision and the conditional Monetary Order that accompanies it.

Settlement Agreement

The parties raised the possibility of settlement pursuant to Section 63(1) of the Act which allows an Arbitrator to assist the parties to settle the dispute. I explained to the parties that settlement discussions are voluntary, that if they chose not to discuss settlement I would make a final and binding Decision on the matter, and that if they chose to discuss settlement and did not come to an agreement, that I would make a final and binding Decision on the matter.

I advised the parties that if they did come to an agreement, I would write out this agreement in my written Decision and make any necessary Orders. I also explained that the written Decision would become a final and legally binding agreement. The parties did not have questions about discussing a settlement when asked.

The parties reached the following full and final settlement agreement during the hearing:

1. The Landlords must pay to the Tenant an amount of $7,750.00. A conditional Monetary Order will be awarded to the Tenant should the Landlords not pay this amount. Only the amount remaining unpaid by the Landlords will be enforceable.
2. The parties agreed that fulfilment of this condition would amount to full and complete satisfaction of this dispute.

This settlement agreement was reached in accordance with Section 63 of the Act. The parties confirmed at the end of the hearing that this agreement was made on a voluntary basis and that they understood the binding nature of this full and final settlement of this dispute.

Conclusion

The parties reached a full and final settlement agreement in resolution of this dispute. I have recorded the terms of settlement in this Decision, and in recognition of the settlement agreement, the Tenant is provided with a conditional Monetary Order in the amount of $7,750.00 to serve and enforce upon the Landlords, if necessary. The Order must be served on the Landlords by the Tenant. Should the Landlords fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an Order of that Court. This Order will only be enforceable in the amount that remains unpaid by the Landlords.

This Decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
