

DECISION

Introduction

The Tenant seeks the following relief under the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”):

- an order pursuant to s. 49 cancelling a Two-Month Notice to End Tenancy for Landlord’s Use of the Property; and
- return of the filing fee pursuant to s. 72.

At the reconvened hearing, A.D. attended as the Tenant. K.L. attended as the Landlord.

Preliminary Issue – Severing the Joined Applications

This matter was joined with three separate applications, filed by different tenants, all of whom received their own Two-Month Notice to End Tenancy. It was scheduled for hearing on January 22, 2024 but was adjourned due to their being insufficient time to complete the hearing.

At the reconvened hearing, I was advised that three of the tenants had settled their claims with the Landlord. One of the tenants had not.

Accepting this, I find that it is administratively prudent to separate the applications to ensure that each party has their own separate decision pertaining to their matter. This ensures there are no issues with breach of confidentiality.

As such, I order that the four applications be severed from each other.

Settlement

I was advised by the Tenant as well as the Landlord that the parties had come to an agreement under which the Tenant agreed to vacate the rental unit on May 1, 2024 in exchange for an undisclosed sum of money. The terms of the settlement were not disclosed to me in specific detail.

Under s. 63 of the Act, I may record a settlement in the form of a decision or order. I enquired whether orders were necessary. The Landlord confirmed she wishes to obtain the order of possession. The Tenant confirmed that a monetary order is unnecessary.

Accepting this, I grant the Landlord an order of possession effective at 1:00 PM on May 1, 2024. The Landlord must serve this order on the Tenant and may enforce it at the BC Supreme Court should the Tenant fail to vacate as agreed.

I make no findings with respect to this dispute. Nothing in this settlement is to be construed as a limit on either parties' entitlement to compensation or other relief to which they may be entitled to under the Act.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under section 9.1(1) of the Act.

Dated: March 1, 2024

---

Residential Tenancy Branch