- An order for the landlord to return the security deposit pursuant to section 38;
- An order requiring the landlord to reimburse the tenant for the filing fee pursuant to section 72.

This hearing also dealt with an application by the landlord under the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act) for the following:

- A monetary order for unpaid rent and for compensation for damage or loss under the Act, Residential Tenancy Regulation ("Regulation") or tenancy agreement pursuant to section 67 of the Act;
- Authorization to retain all or a portion of the tenant's security deposit in partial satisfaction of the monetary order requested pursuant to section 72 of the Act;
- An order requiring the tenant to reimburse the landlord for the filing fee pursuant to section 72.

The parties settled their dispute.

Analysis

Under section 63 of the Act, the Arbitrator may assist the parties to settle their dispute. If the parties settle their dispute during the dispute resolution proceedings, the settlement may be recorded in the form of a decision or an order. During this hearing, the parties reached an agreement to settle their dispute.

Both parties agreed to the following terms of a final and binding resolution of the both applications and the issues in dispute arising out of this tenancy at this time and that they did so of their own free volition and without any element of coercion:

1. The Landlord agreed to pay compensation in the amount of $7,750.00 to the Tenant.
2. The parties agreed the Landlord will pay the Tenant the amount owing by certified cheque or bank transfer to counsel for the Tenant by July 1, 2024.
3. Both parties agreed that these particulars comprise the full settlement of all aspects of the Landlord's current application for dispute resolution.

Conclusion

To give effect to the above settlement reached between the parties, I grant a Monetary Order in the Tenant's favour in the amount of $7,750.00.

The Tenant is provided with this Monetary Order. The Tenant must serve the Landlord as soon as possible and service may be made on Landlord's counsel. The Tenant may file and enforce this Monetary Order in the courts of the Province of BC.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
