- a Monetary Order for money owed or compensation for damage or loss under the Act, regulation or tenancy agreement under section 67 of the Act
- authorization to retain all or a portion of the Tenant's security deposit in partial satisfaction of the Monetary Order requested under section 38 of the Act
- authorization to recover the filing fee for this application from the Tenant under section 72 of the Act

The November 6, 2025, hearing was attended by the Tenant L.T. and the Landlord.

Parties had the opportunity to provide sworn testimony and be heard.

During the hearing the parties indicated their intention to settle their disputes.

Analysis

Under section 63 of the Act, the Arbitrator may assist the parties to settle their dispute. If the parties settle their dispute during the dispute resolution proceedings, the settlement may be recorded in the form of a decision or an order. During this hearing, the parties reached an agreement to settle their disputes.

Both parties agreed to the following terms of a final and binding resolution of their respective applications and the issues in dispute arising out of this tenancy at this time and that they did so of their own free volition and without any element of coercion:

1. Parties agree that all financial matters are now resolved and that nobody owes anybody anything related to this tenancy.
2. The RTB will refund 1 filing fee to the Tenant and will refund the filing fee to the Landlord as a condition of this settlement agreement.
3. Parties agree that this settlement represents the full and final settlement of all matters related to their respective applications and to this tenancy.

Conclusion

The parties agreed to settle and so I provide no findings on the merits of this dispute.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under section 9.1(1) of the Act.

Dated: November 6, 2025
